What is a Maker Faire?

Maker Faire is the Greatest Show (and Tell) on Earth. It is a family-friendly Circus of Creativity, invention and resourcefulness. It is a celebration of the Maker movement. It is where people show off what they are making and share what they are learning.

Makers range from tech enthusiasts to crafters to homesteaders to scientists to chefs to garage tinkerers. They are young and old, they are of all backgrounds. The aim of Maker Faire is to connect, entertain, inform and grow this community. The hope is to showcase a rich mix of makers ranging from crafters to homesteaders to scientists to inventors.

Makers can be, but are not limited to, the following:

- Robotics builders and clubs
- Drone and 3D printing enthusiasts
- Seamstresses, weavers, knitters
- Sculptors, artists, fashion designers
- Actors, musicians and performers
- Writers and storytellers
- Costume makers and cosplayers
- Car designers and bike builders
- Musicians and instrument makers
- Inventors, tinkerers and fixers
- Solar, mechanical and other engineers
- Woodworkers, blacksmiths, machinists, welders
- Home brewers, farmers, food producers and chefs
- App developers and graphic designers
- Puppeteers

The call for Makers, Artists, Inventors, Tinkerers and Performers is open.

*Individuals and groups interested in presenting their project, activity or performance should complete the online application at

The original Maker Faire was held in San Mateo, Calif., about a decade ago and it inspired dozens of similar events across the world. Maker Faires have been held in Tokyo, New York City, Italy and in the United Kingdom. Community-driven, independently organized Mini Maker Faires have popped up across the United States and now one is coming to Fredonia.
